

USAC's Mopar National Midget Series

The stars and cars of USAC's Mopar National Midget Series are headed to North Carolina for the first time in two years to compete here at Hickory Motor Speedway for the first time ever on March 24-25. Come see the finest short-track racing talent in the world compete in two complete nights of action-packed racing.

Both the USAC Midgets and the very competitive Ford Focus Midgets will be showcased in this "doubleheader".

Kasey Kahne, whose NASCAR successes are well documented in recent years, will field a Midget for driver Brad Sweet, who currently leads the 2009 series standings. Defending National Champion Brad Kuhn will also be competing.

Race fans can take advantage of a $5 discount by purchasing tickets on line at www.usacracing.com, by calling the USAC Headquarters at 317-247-5151 or by accessing the following link:

<http://www.usacracing.com/store/hickory-motor-speedway.html> . Tickets are priced at $20 each night but a two-night ticket is available at the price of $35.

Fans will also have the opportunity to win a free "Richard Petty Driving Experience" in a 600-horsepower NASCAR-style stock car at Charlotte Motor Speedway!
